Displaylink Driver Installation Guide

Before use, mobile phones, Windows computers, and Mac computers, you need to visit the DisplayLink official website to install the corresponding drivers.

The URL is as follows: https://www.synaptics.com/ or http://www. displaylink.com/

To promise successful use, please download and update the driver from the DisplayLink official website in time.

Note: In order to install the driver for the Mac OS system successfully, you need to check the APP Store and identified developers in the Computer Preferences, Security, and Privacy Settings in advance.
